

Thursday 6 August 2015

Professor Mingguang He

Professor of Ophthalmic Epidemiology, Centre of Eye Research (CERA)

Department of Ophthalmology, University of Melbourne

Topic: What a twin study tells us about Myopia

Thursday 13 August 2015

Dr. Lauren Ayton

Centre of Eye Research (CERA)

Department of Ophthalmology, University of Melbourne

Topic: Early AMD: New advances in classification, imaging and prognosis

Thursday 20 August 2015

Dr. Andrew Anderson

Department of Optometry and Vision Sciences

The University of Melbourne

Topic: Estimating the true distribution of visual field progression rates in glaucoma

Thursday 27 August 2015

Professor Graham Holder

Director of Electrophysiology

Department of Visual Neuroscience, University College London

Topic: Clinical exploration of the human visual system with electrophysiology

Thursday 10 September 2015

Assoc. Professor Jeroen Van Boxtel

School of Psychological Sciences, Monash University

Topic: Contextual biological motion processing and the link to autism traits, and autism diagnosis.

Thursday 17 September 2015

Dr. Paul Adlard

Florey Institute of Neuroscience and Mental Health

Topic: A novel therapeutic approach for tauopathy.

Thursday 24 September 2015

A/Prof Larry Abel

Department of Optometry and Vision Sciences, University of Melbourne

Topic: Saccadic eye movement impairments in metabolic storage disorders.

Thursday 8 October 2015

Dr. Hamish Meffin

National Vision Research Institute

Topic: Development of the "High-acuity" retinal prosthesis

Thursday 15 October 2015

Dr. Joanne Fielding

Faculty of Medicine, Nursing & Health Sciences

Monash University

Topic: The utility of ocular motor assessment in MS

Thursday 22 October 2015

Dr. Nivedita Chatterjee

Vision Research Foundation

Sankara Nethralaya, Chennai

Topic: HIV1 Tat induced cytotoxicity in Muller glia and its immuno-modulation