

The University of Melbourne in partnership with the Cancer Nurses Society of Australia (CNSA)

Complex cancer symptoms and side-effects: A workshop for early-mid career cancer nurses

21st September 2017

9.00am-4.30pm

at

Graduate House

220 Leicester Street, Melbourne VIC 3053

The University of Melbourne

International invited speaker

Dr Jo Armes

Senior Lecturer, Florence Nightingale School of Nursing and Midwifery
King's College, London

Expert Nurse Panel

Priscilla Gates

Survivorship Nurse Consultant,
Olivia Newton-John Cancer Wellness & Research Centre, Austin Health

Joy Forster

Psychiatric Consultation Liaison Nurse, Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre

Christin Bird

Nurse Practitioner, Chronic Pain and Neuromodulation
Victoria Pain Specialists

Numbers are limited

To register your interest, please RSVP by 8 September 2017 via this link
<https://www.cnsa.org.au/events/event/complex-cancer-symptoms-and-side-effects-a-workshop-for-early-mid-career-cancer-nurses>

Workshop Program

Speaker	Topic
	Registration	8.30-9.00
Sue Bartlett (Chair CNSA Victorian Regional Group) and Mei Krishnasamy (Chair in Cancer Nursing, University of Melbourne)	Welcome	9.00-9.15
Jo Armes	Diabetes and cancer	9.15-10.30
	Morning tea 10.30-10.45
Priscilla Gates	Cognitive decline: screening and intervention	10.45-12.00
Joy Forster	Distress and depression	12.00-13.15
	Lunch 13.15-13.45
Christin Bird	Cancer pain	13.45-15.00
Jo Armes	Cancer-related fatigue	15.00-16.15
	CLOSE

Followed by the 2017 Marian Barrett Lecture

Dr Jo Armes RN, PhD

A tale of two cities: diabetes and cancer

Thursday 21 September

6.00pm - 7.00pm

Ground Floor Auditorium

Peter Doherty Institute for Infection and Immunity

792 Elizabeth Street

Melbourne VIC 3000